DCCC Radiotherapy is the national forum for radiotherapy research in Denmark. You are invited to participate and meet up with researchers, clinicians, PhD students etc. from all institutions in Denmark that are involved in radiotherapy research. The Annual Meeting is a great opportunity to discuss ongoing projects as well as planning future projects in collaboration with colleagues from all over the country. In addition, there will be a chance to challenge your colleagues in a game of pool, table tennis or darts in the bar.

The program?

A main focus at the Annual Meeting will be workshop sessions in which you will have time to interact with other researchers and clinicians from both within and across the work groups in the research center. A detailed program for the Annual Meeting will follow.
